

GENERATION NEXT STUDENT WELLBEING & LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Dear Parents and Carers,

Your student has been selected to be a part of the Generation Next Student Wellbeing and Leadership Program.

The Generation Next Student Wellbeing and Leadership Program equips students and young people with the skills and understanding to help maintain good mental health. It also empowers them to become leaders and advocates for mental wellbeing within their peer groups, families, schools and the wider community.

The Program goes a long way towards contributing to the prevention of mental illness in young people and enabling them to better support others who are experiencing mental ill-health.

There are two live webcasts the students will be participating in, the dates for these will be Friday the 8 March and Friday 15 March 2019. The students will be attending the program instead of normal classes on these dates.

Please complete the attached permission form below if you agree for your child to participate in this program. Completed permission notes need to be returned by the student to participate in this free program.

If you have any questions regarding this incursion, please contact Rebecca Owen, Executive Teacher – Student Services on 6142 3444 or via email rebecca.owen@ed.act.edu.au.

Kind regards,

Heidii Burgess
School Chaplain
