

Year 9/10 Media Production (Film & TV)

Semester 1 Course Outline

Media Production teaches the art of video and film & TV production. Students further develop their film & TV literacy and repertoire by exploring and researching various film & TV styles and genres. They will have the opportunity to gain hands-on experience by scripting; shooting and producing a short film (including a location shoot). Students will develop skills in using digital video/SLR cameras, industry-standard editing programs, audio and lighting equipment. Whether you want to enter a film festival or just want to refine your YouTube clips you will learn useful skills in this course. There will be a strong emphasis on teamwork throughout the production phase of this course.

Learning Outcomes

Students will be assessed on the following Learning Outcomes:

- 9/10.906 - Evaluates how genre and media conventions and technical and symbolic elements are manipulated to make representations and meaning
- 9/10.908 - Produces representations that communicate alternative points of view in media artworks for different community and institutional contexts
- 9/10.905- Analyses how social and cultural values and alternative points of view are portrayed in media artworks personally made, interacted with and distributed
- 9/10.910 - Collaboratively applies design, production and distribution processes

Assessment Tasks

Students will be assessed on their participation and completion of classwork and assessment tasks.

Task	Week Due*
Written Task - Short Film analysis	Term 3, Week 5
Practical - Introduction to Video editing and production software/Premiere Pro	Term 3, Week 5
Media Journal	Term 3, Week 8
Practical - Short Film (Advertisement)	Term 3, Week 9
Written Task - Advertisement/Film research task	Term 3, Week 9
Written Task - Screenplay/Storyboard - Cultural perspectives	Term 4, Week 5
Practical - Short Film - Cultural perspectives	Term 4, Week 6
Premiere Pro	Term 4, Week 9
Media Journal	Term 4, Week 9

*Due dates are an estimate only

Teachers: Daniel Lane

Executive Teachers: Jo Power and Clare Incher